Topic: Workshop on Writing a Successful Master’s Thesis/Dissertation

Research Methodology for MSc in HROMOB Programme
(MSc - Master of Science in Human Resources and Organizational Behaviour)

Date: 25 September 2012
Time: 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Venue: NAB319 A and B, 3/F., New Academic Building
Facilitator: Dr James S. Pounder, Director of Teaching and Learning Centre

Purpose of the Workshop
- To expose students to the major elements involved in producing a successful masters thesis/dissertation

Content
Preparing a research proposal
- A dissertation template
- The dissertation introduction: what should it contain?
- The literature review: telling a story
- Methodology and research design
- Writing up the findings
- Conclusions, recommendations, limitations, scope for further study
- The role of the supervisor: how to manage him or her
- Some practical tips: grammar, avoiding plagiarism referencing